

MASTER'S Ski Race Training

At Kirkwood

OFFERED BY

THE KIRKWOOD SKI EDUCATION FOUNDATION (USSA member)

You are cordially invited to join and participate in the inaugural season of an exclusive skiing program. KSEF (Kirkwood Ski Education Foundation) is introducing a long awaited Master's racing program at Kirkwood for the advanced adult skier.

Skill Levels

From the advanced adult skier who wishes to learn race techniques to improve his or her all mountain skiing expertise to the current Master competitor who wishes to improve their results at the finish.

Time-line

Two Saturday and Sunday sessions a month beginning in December. (Session dates will be announced each month to maximize ease of attendance).

Coaching

Mike Frye

Outcomes

Ski faster with greater confidence. Improve technical and tactical skills in gates and on the mountain. Meet skiers who share a common bond. Enjoy morning coffee and pre-training brief, then hit the slopes to work on those planned goals. After your day relax and meet with coach Frye in a comfortable setting for the your personal results consultation.

Tariffs

Full season program includes 10 Saturday and Sunday sessions (20 total days), Holiday clinic and hooded shell jacket) $1800.00

Reserve now, as participation numbers are limited. Mail a deposit of $200.00 with this form to reserve your spot.
